NOTICE OF DEFAULT

Jointly, individually and personally,

Regarding Account Number: 5424 1801 5619 7391, the following statements are true:

On September 01, 2005, a First Copy Document Draft was sent by USPS certified mail to Citibank in order to pay off the above referenced account in the full amount stated by Citibank South Dakota, N.A. Citibank received it on September 06, 2005 and had 90 days from date of issue to present it -- but failed to do so.

In addition, on November 10, 2005 a Second Copy Check -- which replaces and, by legal custom, supercedes and nullifies the previously issued First Copy Document Draft -- was issued and sent to T. Mancuso, Manager, at Citi Cards by USPS certified mail and made out to Citi Cards, to again attempt to pay off the above referenced account in the same full amount stated by Citi Cards. Citi Cards received this Check on November 14, 2005, and had 21 days from date of issue to present it -- but again failed to do so.

U.C.C. §3-603: Tender of Payment

(a) If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the effect of tender is governed by principles of law applicable to tender of payment under a simple contract.

(b) If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument and the tender is refused, there is discharge, to the extent of the amount of the tender, of the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse with respect to the obligation to which the tender relates.

(c) If tender of payment of an amount due on an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligation of the obligor to pay interest after the due date on the amount tendered is discharged. If presentment is required with respect to an instrument and the obligor is able and ready to pay on the due date at every place of payment stated in the instrument, the obligor is deemed to have made tender of payment on the due date to the person entitled to enforce the instrument.

Further, the United States Supreme Court has ruled:

"His tender, as we have already seen, was equivalent to payment, so far as concerns the legality of all subsequent steps by the collector to enforce payment by distraint of his property."
Poindexter v. Greenhow, 114 U.S. 270 quoted in AYERS, SCOTT, MCCABE., 8 S. Ct. 164, 123 U.S. 443 (U.S. 12/05/1887)

Further:

"Silence can only be equated with fraud when there is a legal or moral duty to speak, or when an inquiry left unanswered would be intentionally misleading... We cannot condone this shocking conduct... If that is the case we hope our message is clear. This sort of deception will not be tolerated and if this is routine it should be corrected immediately" U.S. v. Tweel, 550 F2d 297, 299-300.

Based on the foregoing evidence, Citibank South Dakota, N.A./Citi Cards is hereby deemed to be in default.
